DETAILED ACTION

1. This is the second office action for serial number 10/715,189. This application contains 4 claims numbered 5-8. Claims 1-4 have been canceled. Claims 5-8 have been added.
2. A substitute abstract of the disclosure has been entered.

Specification

3. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: The drawings show the pole (3), shaft (10), threaded nut and even the shell plate (21) being cross-hatched as metal but in the specification fails to support or describe the material of the pole (3), shaft (10), threaded nut and the shell plate (21) whether they are made of metal or flexible plastic, or rubber.

The pole (3) as shown appears having two elements (inner and outer elements, the outer element appears to be a spring) but does not describe in the specification.

Appropriate correction is required.

Drawings

4. The drawings are objected to because element 11 (the disc) is cross-hatched as metal when the specification described as rubber. Also the pole 3 is cross-hatched as metal when the specification described as a stretchable pole, which appears to be flexible plastic. The disc (11) describe as rubber but on the drawings cross-hatched like a metal. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

5. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 5-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 5 recites a threaded nut threadedly connected to the threaded shaft while on the drawings showing that the threaded shaft 10 and disc 11 are a unitary member and the disc is made of rubber as described in the specification. It is unclear how does the nut screw up and down on a rubber shaft.

Claim 7 recites the pole is stretchable but the pole (3) shows on the drawings appears to be a metal. It is unclear how the pole can be stretchable when it is metal.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 5-8 are rejected but would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: Holden does not teach a compression stand having a slot hole located between the shell plate and the connecting sleeve; the threaded nut selectively moving the rubber sucking disc between first and second positions to create a vacuum; and a pole connecting at a first end to the connecting sleeve as present in independent claim 5.
